

The Lord had said to Abram, “Leave your country, your people and your father’s household and go to the land I will show you. “I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.” So Abram left, as the Lord had told him.

—Genesis 12:1-4

Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

—Matthew 28: 19-20

This we pray...

Lord, thank you for the timelessness of your Word. At the beginning of the Old Testament you called Abram and at the beginning of the New Testament you called me. The call is the same: to go! Thank you for revealing your desire in the Word. Jesus, I want to hear your voice and I want to hear your call for my life. As such, I invite you to come into my presence and speak to me about your plans for the rest of my days on earth.
