

The voice of the Lord is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the Lord thunders over the mighty waters. The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is majestic. The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars; the Lord breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon. He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox. The voice of the Lord strikes with flashes of lightning. The voice of the Lord shakes the desert; the Lord shakes the Desert of Kadesh. The voice of the Lord twists the oaks and strips the forests bare. And in his temple all cry, "Glory!" The Lord sits enthroned over the flood; the Lord is enthroned as King forever. The Lord gives strength to his people; the Lord blesses his people with peace.

—Psalm 29:3-11

This we pray...

God, your Word tells me that your voice is powerful and majestic. Thank you for the glory that your name brings. Thank you for the name of Jesus. It is your voice I long to hear. It is your words I long to obey. Oh Lord, I want to sit in your temple and declare your glory. I want to sit in the courts where you rule and reign. My prayer, oh God, is that you will speak to me and call me to do your work on earth. I am an empty vessel, waiting to be filled and guided by only you. Holy One, come!
