

CONNECTING OPENER: Describe the wildest adventure you have ever experienced.

Read Acts 12:25-13:52

DISCOVERING

- Who are the prophets and teachers of the church at Antioch?
- Where is Antioch? What year is this? How long since the conversion of Saul?
- Why were "worshiping the Lord and fasting" both important for hearing the Holy Spirit speak?
- What role does the church of Antioch play in Paul's first missionary journey?
- Where did the missionaries go and how did they get there? Who went?
- Explain in your own words what happened in Paphos. Biblically support Paul's accusations of the sorcerer.
- Review and outline Paul's message in verses 16 to 49.
- What do we learn from verse 50-52?

CONNECTING

- What do you think the role of fasting and worshiping should be in your life? In your church's life? Why?
- Do you believe that a modern evangelist could convince people in the same way that Paul convinced the governor and advisors in verses 6-12?
- What would happen if you told someone about Jesus? Are you willing to suffer what Paul and Barnabas did?

EQUIPPING

- What insights can you apply to your life from these scriptures?
- Does 13:47 express your mission? What steps can you take to better fulfill this mission?
